THE COMPOSER

HERMANN BELLSTEDT (1858-1892)

Herman Bellstedt, born in Bremen, Germany in 1858, emigrated to America with his family in 1867. They settled in Cincinnati, OH, which served as his primary residence throughout his career. An early prodigy on the cornet, he played with several prominent bands and was hired by Patrick Gilmore as assistant to the famous Ben Bent as well as serving as cornet soloist. Following Gilmore's death in 1892, he organized a band and served as Conductor and cornet soloist. In 1904, he joined the Sousa Band, performing solos and playing alongside Walter Rogers and Herbert L. Clarke, (the three were known as the famed "Three Solitaires"), and upon Rogers' departure from the Band, became Clarke's stand partner.

Bellstedt returned to Cincinnati following numerous years playing and touring and became a pedagogue at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music where one of his most successful students was Frank Simon. Bellstedt was a successful composer/arranger for both Sousa and the Frederick Innes Band; the solos Mandolinata and Napoli remain as his two most remembered performance vehicles.

NAPOLI

Bellstedt's variations on Napoli features the popular Neopolitan song "Finiculi, Finicula" (composed by Luigi Denza in 1880) that celebrated the funicular railway built up the side of Mt. Vesuvius in 1880. The popular tune was used by Richard Strauss in his composition "Aus Italien" under the mistaken idea that it was a folk song, not someone's actual composition. Denza took Strauss to court and won an injunction that forced Strauss's publisher to pay Denza a royalty every time "Aus Italien" was performed!

choenberg also wrote a version of the song for string quartet. Other popular Amalfi Coast songs include "O Solo Mio" and "Torna a Sorrento" (Come Back to Sorrento).
